From the New York Tribune
GALENA Ill November 1868

A RETROSPECTION

Grant was a resident of Galena long before the war The ugh the numerous railroads which now ... pass through whether ... fragmentary ... explore we learn all about those ... chronological features essential here We are ... told how that then Galena was a thriving little city of fifteen to 20 000 and 25 000 inhabitants The father of our future President Hon Jesse R Grant ... with that sharp intuitive sight for negotiating ... by which selected Galena as the field of ... business in the belief and hope that it would speak ... that energy spirit and courage which ... Grant upon her many hills during the Grant and Lomo

Fifteen years ago its capital was larger than that employed in Chicago in fact we supplied Chicago with capital upon which to build business ... and before the construction of the railway ... trade with Northern Illinois Wisconsin and Iowa was superior to that of Chicago But the railroad, by opening up a market eastward killed Galena's business and from that day forward it went down

Galena is built on either side of Fever or Galena river, a small navigable stream falling into the Mississippi a few miles beyond The topography is peculiar and in all respects Galena is a curiosity town Jagged hills and knobs rise abruptly from the river bank leaving room between the stream and the bluffs for but one or two narrow crooked streets As Grant said You can look down from almost any point into your neighbor's chimney so abrupt and rugged is the ground (or rather rocky ledges) upon which Galena stands Streets do not confine themselves to parallel lines but follow the fortuitous windings of vagabond ravines which penetrate the bluffs and gradually creep up to the table lands beyond The sides and very apexes of the hills are covered with buildings some of them substantial brick edifices many of wood and the whole jumbled together cliffs knobs ravines church spires shanties breweries and brown stones forming a most ludicrous heterogenity Barring a certain dilapidated and melancholy air like that which hangs over a great man fallen Galena is yet a picturesque and interesting little city Many lovely dwellings lift themselves upon the surrounding summits and crown the freaks of nature with freaks of art But in those auxe bellum days when Captain Grant with his amiable wife and four bright children was a denizen doing business in Galena the town was all life energy property and delight True its doom had been predicted but it did not end had begun Yet the firm of J R Grant & Co thrived The senior member of the firm lived in Covington and his three sons the one who recently died and Ulysses and Orville conducted the business with commendable enterprise

Captain Grant was the ... gentleman in that firm What a glorious commentary on our Republican institutions if it that we can look back to a period with a decade and see a plain citizen engaged in ordinary mercantile pursuits grow with a nation's growth whose ... progress are wonderful and become elevated from among the democratic world It is not more commendable because of the non existence of all false barriers to promotion than because it is eminently honorable for men entirely great to pursue an unpretentious business or profession in which genius finds scope for its energies and their reward in ... interests And Grant under the aegis of the theory of a republic found it none stood with his democratic ideas to resign his captaincy in the regular army and engage in buying hides and pork on the streets of Galena for it was lucrative supplied his family with all the comforts of a happy little home and gave him a clear conscience and peace of mind to the memories of many citizens of Galena Ulysses S Grant is as familiar as a last night's dream wearing an old blue army overcoat and making sharp trades with the yeomanry in the streets or in their farm wagons drawing hides and slaughtered swine ... outside of the firm of J R Grant & Co he was everywhere beloved His manners were suave and his free debits warm and ... as

MRS U S GRANT

But the elect on to the Chief Magistracy of the nation of her husband likewise to her own promotion and while he is thereby made the central political figure in this Republic of not in the world she is that becomes the leading lady of American society This Government like some of the Old World has suffered the ... graces and humiliation ... unworthy women to high places The flirting and fallen Queens of Spain the dissolute Isabella is a fresh instance in European Government But typify ... such others but it is unnecessary to specify Even more than a man a woman in a high station ... lasting public to edunator and while from her vagaries and turpitude many evils may flow on the other hand manifold blessings follow her in a path of purity rectitude and charity I need not designate the multiplied instances where private vice and stupidity have prevailed in the White House —in its former management The country yet smarts under such exhibitions there of Will not a quiet man of the people at last assume the Presidential office, the inquiry turns naturally to the qualities Mrs Grant will bring into the high position she will assume to be called into full

In a general way it may be said that she is in all respects a lady that she is a true woman a good wife a fond mother and that the fashionable world need fear no reproach such as being ... as she passes over the Presidential Mansion its conduction will not be of a character to gratify and charm the most scrupulous admirer and most fastidious critic of what is fit and proper in that high place

During my sojourn in Galena I have had the pleasure of meeting Mrs Grant on her parlor on several occasions ... the last I had met her at the grand crowded reception in Washington I never before conversed with her and had an unpretentious charming white haired lady ... Her ... eyes ... beautiful ... and ... expressive of purity and motherly love ... and ... she seems the ... ideal ... of a mother and a wife She possessed the great requirements of the White House as a spirit of perfect understanding I am satisfied there is no lady in the land more capable of lending ... Executive Mansion its due charm of ... and ... with great grace ... In anticipation of the responsibilities coming upon her she seems to have made the subject one of considerate reflection and while she will scrupulously shun the applause ... she will with equal watchfulness guard against the charybdis of ... retirement and seclusion Frankaffable ... and true a lover of friends and ... city with excellent tastes and a sentiment ... duties and proprieties ... Grant will adorn the White House with its entertainments in the language of her husband she is "my best ... and ... counsellor"

Fifteen years ago April days of 1861 ... will be ... I note that on each ... was published to the effect that on each ... Grant ... to accompany ... lieutenant ... Harris ... on the fatal night ... April ... Instantly the desperate assassin ... lent ... mutable murder and perhaps the next ... does not know that it was by the ... of Mrs Grant that such an augmented calamity was averted Mrs Grant dotes ... to me the circumstances ... determined her to proceed ... promptly ... to Philadelphia ... further

A message ... to ... meeting the President ... party to Harrisburg ... that we were going ... Philadelphia ... She read the ... paper and ... to the ... papers to be present to ... in ... compliment ... change ... Your will please deliver my message with my regrets ... returned ... Mrs Lincoln and we took the evening train for Philadelphia

Thus by a sacrifice of pleasure to duty she doubtless saved the life of her husband and averted additional horrors from a defenceless people

In my conversation with Mrs Grant I enjoyed quite a remark of hers though it was at my expense She did not know it however for I intended it and the ... is all the more keenly enjoyable Speaking of the exciting times last winter in Washington she said

When the newspapers were abusing the General so wickedly and denouncing him as unfit to fill the Stanton controversy I remember how ... paper men were terrified reports and thought the President would be impeached

The ... was particular and we laughed over the unintended pun

I wish I had the graphic power to give a just description of the most memorable event of my ... Galena The great electric ... had taken place and thirty six millions of people were waiting in impatient expectancy the result Were not the eyes of half the civilized world centered on Galena that Tuesday night 4th November A D 1868? Was it not supremely the head of the Republican party on that ... The telegraph line had been extended into the library ... Mr Washburne's house and were ... gentlemen ... from ... personal friends of General ... were assembled ... the little party at Mr Washburne's and ... the ...

HEARING THE NEWS

For unately I was among the number to whom Mr Washburne's hospitality was so generously extended Gen Grant and Cole Comstock and Badeau of his staff were there A cozy hickory fire burned cheerily in a neat fire place bespeaking to the apartment a glow of comfort which only laughing blazes can give Tick-e-tick tick-e-tick sang the mysterious instrument which within a few hours was to tell us important stories from a hundred cities—from all the great States spanning a continent—from the shores of two mighty oceans and from the lands to the north of us to the Gulf of Mexico Most of the select little party had assembled by 8 o'clock in the evening Gen Grant, with the inevitable cigar chatted away to one another apparently the least concerned of all A few trivial and unimportant dispatches came in at long intervals and the evening gradually wore away Nine o'clock came then ten and the first decisive information came flashing down from the furthest Yankee dom as follows

Maine pledged 40 000 and she has kept her faith (Signed) JAS G BLAINE

Gen Grant had been in excellent spirits all the evening Upon the receipt of Mr Blaine's dispatch he walked over to the light and drawing from his pocket a small piece of paper, consulted a column of figures

Well said he, my first guess is pretty good

Have you been guessing on majorities General? asked some one Let's see your guesses —let's see them! chimed several voices But Grant laughingly declined, replying

I made my guesses some days ago I don't wish to show them in advance but will say we going and hardly had he made the promise before the instrument ticked off the following

New Hampshire doubles her majority of last Spring and gives more than 5 000 for Grant and peace (Signed) WM CHANDLER

Out came his computation paper Had he divined the truth readily? Exactly Memo 30 000 New Hampshire 5 000

An old gentleman jocularly accused him of having accepted the offer of the Chicago astrologist who proposed for a stipulated sum to tell him in advance what would be the exact result But Gen Grant laughingly denied the soft impeachment

News from the old Bay State came next and it came in genuine Plymouth Rock dialect as follows to wit

Massachusetts first in the cause of liberty and a union of States sends greeting by a majority of 50 000 of her sons to the pacificator by the sword but giving that he will secure by the milder paths of peace and administration that peace and prosperity which their fathers guaranteed through a Government based on equal right

(Signed) JNO M WILLIAMS

Eighty thousand! Out came Gen Grant's paper All ears were listening for the result of the General's guess. The shadows of a happy defeat stole over his face and he acknowledged to have in that case, missed it. He had put Massachusetts down for 53 000! In reply to a question if he was pained to see his conjectures in that way proved unsuccessful he said Yes I do feel a little bad to see Massachusetts giving so much over I would rather have it scattered through New York and Indiana

As the night sped away the good news came flashing from all quarters We laughed smoked talked cheered and refreshed from an abundant table in an adjoining room as inclination led us All acknowledged the kindness of the courteous host and hostess Mr and Mrs Cary Pennsylvania was all right So said the following from Harrisburg

Republican majority in Pennsylvania will be about twenty thousand

(Signed) JNO W GEARY

And the following

All safe Majority very much increased all over the State since October SIMON CAMERON

And better yet from Philadelphia

The Union League of Philadelphia congratulates Gen Grant on his election as President of the United States and renews to him the assurance of our confidence in his wisdom a patriotism (Signed) GEORGE H BOKER

Other dispatches from G A Grow, Jno W Forney &c confirmed the first statement and Gen Grant made another comparison finding his surname upon the Keystone to have been 25 000 Good guessing so far At this juncture a dispatch from Indianapolis was read

Indiana sends Grant and Colfax 10 000 majority (Signed) A H CONNER

Later information placed it at 15 000 and we found that the imperturbable Ulysses had in his faith in Hoosier patriotism, set it as high as 10 000

A gentleman inquired Have we no news from Kentucky?

Grant responded Nothing yet they got it on the other side of the line The hero of Shiloh felt that it was the battle over again in a different form and that Kentucky was in the second line of Lee and Stonewall Jackson But we had hear from the lucky first a telegram from Chicago was read

The latest information from Kentucky says that F Nasby has resigned the Confederate Postmaster Generalship and has gone into the corner grocery business

That would do to laugh at but a genuine cheerful dispatch also came up from the dark and bloody ground as follows

Thank God for victory! Kentucky even as doubled her vote

(Signed) E R WING

A half dozen cheering and patriotic dispatches were received from beholyler Colfax One of them breathes such a warmth of unselfish patriotism and love and sympathy for loyal Southern men in peril that I give it in full

I estimate two hundred and eight electoral votes for Grant to eighty six for Seymour with fifty to sixty Republican majority in the House I think the idea of protracted defense by Southern men South has gone to Grant's overwhelming majority

(Signed) SCHUYLER COLFAX

Ohio sent greeting as follows

We have carried Ohio by a largely increased vote over October Majority from thirty to forty thousand

(Signed) WM DENNISON

Telegrams from Ohio were also received from Gen Leggett and Mayor Wilstach of Cincinnati and from 11 o'clock PM till 2 o'clock AM they came in thick and fast from everywhere At a late hour while talking on the general result Grant said One thing is very favorable We have heard of a single row or riot in any place

Thus showing that the Jacobinical ... was ... earnest as it was beautiful

New York proved to be the ... trembling block We couldn't get a word from there Sunday in ... mind much of Connecticut had sent glorious ... HEARING THE NEWS

For unately I was among the number to whom Mr Washburne's hospitality was so generously extended Gen Grant and Cole Comstock and Badeau of his staff were there A cozy hickory fire burned cheerily in a neat fire place bespeaking to the apartment a glow of comfort which only laughing blazes can give Tick-e-tick tick-e-tick sang the mysterious instrument which within a few hours was to tell us important stories from a hundred cities—from all the great States spanning a continent—from the shores of two mighty oceans and from the lands to the north of us to the Gulf of Mexico Most of the select little party had assembled by 8 o'clock in the evening Gen Grant, with the inevitable cigar chatted away to one another apparently the least concerned of all A few trivial and unimportant dispatches came in at long intervals and the evening gradually wore away Nine o'clock came then ten and the first decisive information came flashing down from the furthest Yankee dom as follows

Maine pledged 40 000 and she has kept her faith (Signed) JAS G BLAINE

Gen Grant had been in excellent spirits all the evening Upon the receipt of Mr Blaine's dispatch he walked over to the light and drawing from his pocket a small piece of paper, consulted a column of figures

Well said he, my first guess is pretty good

Have you been guessing on majorities Gen Grant? asked some one Let's see your guesses —let's see them! chimed several voices But Grant laughingly declined, replying

I made my guesses some days ago I don't wish to show them in advance but will say we going and hardly had he made the promise before the instrument ticked off the following

New Hampshire doubles her majority of last Spring and gives more than 5 000 for Grant and peace (Signed) WM CHANDLER

Out came his computation paper Had he divined the truth readily? Exactly Memo 30 000 New Hampshire 5 000

An old gentleman jocularly accused him of having accepted the offer of the Chicago astrologist who proposed for a stipulated sum to tell him in advance what would be the exact result But Gen Grant laughingly denied the soft impeachment

News from the old Bay State came next and it came in genuine Plymouth Rock dialect as follows to wit

Massachusetts first in the cause of liberty and a union of States sends greeting by a majority of 50 000 of her sons to the pacificator by the sword but giving that he will secure by the milder paths of peace and administration that peace and prosperity which their fathers guaranteed through a Government based on equal right

(Signed) JNO M WILLIAMS

Eighty thousand! Out came Gen Grant's paper All ears were listening for the result of the General's guess. The shadows of a happy defeat stole over his face and he acknowledged to have in that case, missed it. He had put Massachusetts down for 53 000! In reply to a question if he was pained to see his conjectures in that way proved unsuccessful he said Yes I do feel a little bad to see Massachusetts giving so much over I would rather have it scattered through New York and Indiana

As the night sped away the good news came flashing from all quarters We laughed smoked talked cheered and refreshed from an abundant table in an adjoining room as inclination led us All acknowledged the kindness of the courteous host and hostess Mr and Mrs Cary Pennsylvania was all right So said the following from Harrisburg

(Signed) JNO W GEARY

And the following

All safe Majority very much increased all over the State since October SIMON CAMERON

And better yet from Philadelphia

The Union League of Philadelphia congratulates Gen Grant on his election as President of the United States and renews to him the assurance of our confidence in his wisdom a patriotism (Signed) GEORGE H BOKER

Other dispatches from G A Grow, Jno W Forney &c confirmed the first statement and Gen Grant made another comparison finding his surname upon the Keystone to have been 25 000 Good guessing so far At this juncture a dispatch from Indianapolis was read

Later information placed it at 15 000 and we found that the imperturbable Ulysses had in his faith in Hoosier patriotism, set it as high as 10 000

A gentleman inquired Have we no news from Kentucky?

Grant responded Nothing yet they got it on the other side of the line The hero of Shiloh felt that it was the battle over again in a different form and that Kentucky was in the second line of Lee and Stonewall Jackson But we had hear from the lucky first a telegram from Chicago was read

The latest information from Kentucky says that F Nasby has resigned the Confederate Postmaster Generalship and has gone into the cor

THURSDAY MORNING DEC 10 1868

The Proposed Constitutional Amendment

It has long been apparent that the time was destined to arrive when the exercise of the suffrage in a part of the country would not depend entirely but in part at least would be by some public opinion which would apply equally to all the citizens This has required no prophetic vision In the columns this idea has frequently appeared and the inevitable approach of equal suffrage in all parts of the country is marked plainly An amendment securing the suffrage to all citizens without distinction of race or color has already been introduced into Congress It will pass without delay and so the legislatures of the States this winter A large majority of the States will ratify it even though the necessary three fourths may not be secured until another year But it will be carried Nothing can defeat it For several years the movement has been strong in this direction and the public mind is fully prepared for this question

In the late contest the national party of the Republican party turned largely upon the question of equal suffrage in the South and that policy was sustained by a very powerful majority of the whole people of the country During the past year there has manifestly been a great change in public sentiment on the suffrage question In 1867 the Republicans barely carried their general ticket in Ohio, while they lost the Legislature and the suffrage amendment In 1868 standing on the same platform they carried the State by upwards of 40 000 majority indicating that the next time the suffrage question is submitted to the people of the State it will be triumphantly adopted In 1867 equal suffrage was defeated by a popular vote in Minnesota In 1868 it carried by 10 000 majority Iowa by a majority of 30,000 has voted to eliminate the word "white" from her Constitution A similar proposition failed in Missouri but by a very small vote The question was new in that State, and the prejudice against it owing to the recency of slavery is naturally strong but the closeness of the vote shows that it will carry on the next trial Experience shows that this is a thing which does not go back The growth of the principle is rapid and steady, and to settle the whole matter beyond further cavil or dispute an amendment to the National Constitution is now proposed

The Convention which framed the Constitution was unable to agree upon a common rule as to the qualifications of voters for members of Congress, so they placed in the Constitution a clause prescribing the qualifications to be the same as those established by each State for the electors of members of the Legislature The rule of suffrage, at that time in the several States was different Negroes voters in some States and were in others Property was a qualification for voters in some States but the general approach to general suffrage was in the modifications of voters for the lower branch of the State Legislatures Had the word "white" been proposed as a qualification of voters it would have been rejected, be it would have taken suffrage away from many enjoying it The time has arrived, as the Chicago Tribune well says, when the present constitutional qualification of voters for Federal officers should give way and the nation repeat, in a more direct form in the Constitution, the exercise of its undoubted right to designate its own constituency

The delegation, even indirectly to any State authority of the power to limit and control the constituencies of the Government is anomalous, and was submitted to at the time on the assumption that universal suffrage would soon become the rule and that then the restriction would not apply

BRITISH DISCOVERY —The Herald has made the astounding discovery that the Radical Federal party is nothing but the old Federal party under a new name Also, that this party desires a consolidated Government Inasmuch as the old Federal party was the party which founded this Government the party which Lincoln, according to the authority of George Washington, who presided over the constitutional convention, "a consolidated Government" and which controlled it during the first forty years of its existence until an unfortunate political revolution took place based on the principles which produced the great Rebellion of 1860—it is not perceivable that the Herald's accusation is a very forcible one The rebellion was caused by a departure from the principles on which the Federal party founded the Government, and the war which has been waged for national unity was a reassertion of Federal principles against the dogma of the destructive Democracy The Government is now what its founders intended it should be a Government which has power to enforce its constitutional authority, a nation not a league of States a "consolidated Government," not an association of sovereignties which have the right to dissolve at their individual pleasure, as many of them attempted to do in 1860 when Democracy could find no way to prevent them We cannot think it a very damaging accusation to say that the "Radical" party is the same old party which founded the Government the same old party whose principles as experience has shown are the only principles on which the Government can be maintained

PENSIONS —The report of the Commissioner of Pensions which has been submitted to the Secretary of the Interior shows that the amount actually paid as pensions by the Government during the year ending on the 30th June last was $24 010 981 50 The number of persons on the pension rolls is 117 726 The last pensioned soldier of the Revolution is dead, but there are on the rolls 888 widows of Revolutionary soldiers The Government now pays for pensions alone about one third as much money as was required for all the purposes of Government before the war The pension list is the fruit of the great rebellion and yet those who encouraged the rebellion and wanted it to succeed are grumbling both at the high rate of taxation

VOTE OF CALIFORNIA The vote for Grant in California is 54 474 for Seymour 54 012 Republican majority 462 Total vote 108 486 Total vote in 1864 107 37 The vote for Congressmen stands as follows First District, Pixley Rep 20 081 Axtell 19 632 Second District Sargent Rep 18 264 Coffroth Dem 15 134 Third District Harteson Rep, 15 029 Johnson Dem 15 792 Thus California will stand in the next Congress precisely as now two Democrats and one Republican

"REST PERTURBED SPIRITS" The Democratic papers continue to discuss the causes of their late defeat Why can't they recognize the fact that they are politically dead, and rest quietly in their graves?

In this last Presidential election the Legislature of Florida elected the Electors of President The people had nothing to do with it The Radicals alone had control of the Legislature and they dare not trust the people Thus we stay after another in the grand temple of our constitutional government is stricken down by vandal hands and will the people raise no voice until they are buried in the ruins of the falling fabric Herald

The editor forgot to say anything about the good old Democratic State of South Carolina where from time immemorial the Legislature elected the Electors of President and the people had nothing to do with it While this was a practice common to the Carolina State we have not heard it mentioned by any Democratic authority as proof that no stay after in the grand temple of our constitutional government was being stricken down by vandal hands

WELL DONE In our triumph of the revenue we recognize a fair though invidious political payment and we must admit that he has well represented his State in Congress his principles in a gift which it has both favored and for the next three years the House of Representatives which passes rather a ludicrous figure and but Mr Dawes contends that if properly handled it is quite kind and innocuous He says it is no Copperhead but simply an honest snake True to its nature however it will for a mere touch turn up a fang But we hope to find it too intelligent a snake to mistake its friends for its foes

GAMBLERS DEFEATED —An attempt was made by the Democratic politicians of Florida to count in Hoffman instead of the Republican Electors in the gross frauds of which votes were cast for Hoffman instead of the votes for Blair The object of the Democrats was to have twenty per cent of the votes they had made on the State But the Supreme Court by unanimous decision issued a mandamus to have the vote counted as it was manifestly intended it should be by the voters Thus the trick of the California Democrats was defeated

ANXIOUS FOR RAIN There appears to be a good deal of anxiety in California about the lack of rain The season so far has been very dry to meet the wishes of the farmers and prospects are by no means encouraging The Bulletin of the 30th November says There is more than usual anxiety about the prospects of a sufficient rainfall for agricultural purposes And this is natural, since many farms have been bought or rented at high figures with the expectation of meeting heavy obligations with the avails of the next wheat crop

NEARING THE END The Bulletin of San Francisco shows that there remains to complete the great trans continental railroad only 323 miles of grading and tracklaying The Union Pacific is within 121 miles of the head of Salt Lake while the Central Pacific is within 200 miles of the same point It is not likely that the connection of the two ends will be delayed longer than May next

STATE ITEMS

The Academy at Wilbur, Douglas county is in a flourishing condition The new building is about ready to be occupied

W R Singleton, an old influential Democrat of Douglas county, publishes a letter in the Ensign in which he declares his purpose to act with the Democratic party no longer

The Roseburg paper says We learn that Mr David Crow, an old man and resident of Cole's Valley, died suddenly in his bed last Monday night The particulars we did not learn but it is supposed he had a heart disease

The Jacksonville Sentinel says a country jake" rode his horse into a saloon in that place one evening last week Sixshooters were drawn The fellow was marched to the calaboose to spend the night and the citizens thought he was drunk

Chances of Success in Cities

The New York correspondent of the Rochester Democrat says

The varied chances of success in this city are illustrated by daily examples Let us look at a pair of these which have just come before us In 1846, two active and determined young men commenced trade They were poor but borrowed fifteen hundred dollars of their friends, to whom they could give no security They were very industrious and to save money, for two years boarded themselves living on bread, boiled eggs chocolate and similar provisions, and it was not until the third year that they could afford the better accommodations of a plain boarding house They built up in this way a thriving, wholesale trade paid their borrowed money and made a nice surplus In six years one of them whom we may designate as M having a desire for a profession sold out to his partner and put his funds into real estate This was sixteen years ago, since which time M has been leading an easy and most congenial life The other whom we may call B continued the business and applied himself to it with unwearied assiduity He was considered a very able business man, and yet after sixteen years of hard work, he comes out a bankrupt This fall he abandons New York in order to try to retrieve his fortunes in the great West while M has become quite rich from the rise in property Knowing these parties well, the fate of B has surprised me exceedingly, but it only shows how uncertain are the best prospects this city can afford

Another instance of a very different character is found in the history of Mr D of the firm of L & Co, a wholesale Broadway house In 1861 this gentleman was a resident of the country, and was ruined by the revulsions of that commercial crisis which then swept the land He had a family depending upon him and this thought nerved him to a desperate effort He came to New York determined to try his chance He refused to take a situation because he knew he could not live on a salary and hence commenced trade on his own account At that time rents were very low and he hired one half of the ground floor of a first class store for $100 a year The same premises are now worth $3 000 He has commenced in petty trade but the great demand for goods and the abundance led to a rapid increase During the war Mr L made quite a fortune and has an establishment on Broadway and a country seat in New Jersey Of this fact to whom reference has been made we supposed the first man's chances to be the better and the result shows how difficult it is for any one to read the future in this great chaos of trade If there was any one in the city of whose success we felt certain it was he and yet after living in New York nearly a quarter of a century he now goes forth as an adventurer to begin a new struggle among the ruthless adventurers of the West

Steamship Mail.—As items of interest to the mail contractors are few, we copy the following from the Columbian of the 5th inst

The steamship Ajax arrived in the mouth of the Columbia about 6 o'clock yesterday morning and proceeded on to the bar where she remained till near noon Her passengers were transferred to the steamer Pony and arrived here about 4 P M The Ajax eventually got off and sailed at 4 o'clock P M yesterday, and will reach San Francisco about the same time that the steamer of Sunday last did, the distance of a Sunday trip occurring this season

PERSONAL —Capt Woods and crew arrived down from Salem yesterday afternoon with the We couldn't discover from his appearance that he was about to yield to Copperhead fury, for at extra session but we hardly expect any change in the result as indicated over last

A LIVELY POLICE DAY The Recorder had a busy time yesterday about a half dozen cases of disorderly drunk carrying concealed weapons and battery This is an unusual amount of business Our city has many months has hardly seen two days two cases of any kind

PORTLAND LIBRARY.—The following new books have been just received at the Portland Library: Dallas Galbraith, by Mrs. E. H. Davis; White Gauntlet, by Mayne Reid; Friendly Counsel, by Sydney Cox; The Art of Amusing, by Frank Bellew; The New England Tragedies, by Longfellow.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT—DEADY, JUDGE.—In the U. S. District Court yesterday in the case of the United States vs. A. S. Shattuck, the evidence was closed in the forenoon and the argument was opened at one o'clock.

NOT THE MAN.—We are requested to state that John Everest of the Washington Brass Band, is not the person spoken of by the Commercial who was found drunk on the sidewalk, yesterday, and fined.

SAILED.—The steamship Geo. S. Wright, Capt. Laing, sailed at half past four yesterday afternoon, for Victoria and Sound ports, with a light freight and a few passengers.

FOR THE HOLIDAYS.—Santa Claus, it seems, has established his principal depot for Oregon, at McCorkle's. See his address to the little folks in our advertising columns.

LUNCH TO-DAY.—The Ladies Fair of the M. E. Church will spread a lunch from 12 to 2 o'clock P. M.

LUNCH.—The printers of the OREGONIAN return thanks to the Ladies of the Methodist Fair for the liberal lunch set before them last evening.

THE WORD BOHEMIAN. Which is fast becoming a household word, is derived from the Greek, and composed of two words, Non and Odontes, "Sore," translated, means to preserve, and "Odontes," the teeth. Sozodont, a preserver of the teeth. And it is true to its name.

GRACEFUL AND PLEASING.—Those new and beautiful styles of Parlor Suites, now so fashionable at the East, Can be seen at Burgren & Shindler's. Also, many rare articles of ornament and use, for the parlor and the house.

A busy man is a happy motive, and I do a trade. Every night he drives into "the house" and stops. Every morning he is fired up anew, and away he goes switching off in one direction and then another. In this routine of business he forgets that the physical organization is of the most delicate kind. If a hard iron locomotive needs constant care, and to be well oiled up and rubbed off every day, how much more necessary is it that all men and women should use PLANTATION BITTERS, which are the re plus ultra of everything which is necessary to keep the system in a perfect tone of health.

TEETH EXTRACTED
By Dr. Richardson's Apparatus, Lately Improved by Dr. Koehler, with Ether Spray.
WILLIAM KOEHLER,
DENTIST.
OFFICE—Southwest corner Front and Yamhill Streets, opposite E. J. Northrup & Co's Hardware Store
I am now making, amongst numerous other styles of ARTIFICIAL TEETH, the improved Vulcanite Plates of Dr. G. W. Codd's Patent, patented Dec. 3, 1861, the improvement of which consists in lining the entire concave surface with fine gold; it not only makes the plate double as strong and cleanlier than the common Vulcanite Plate. It also can by it be made considerably thinner and lighter, whereas the price is but little above that for common plates. Call and and see specimens.
N. B.—Dentists wishing to secure the office right for Dr. G. W. Codd's Improved Vulcanite Plates can have it made out to them by applying to this office.
N. B.—To strangers I would say, that a constantly increasing Dental Practice for the last five years in this city, will be a sufficient guarantee for them to receive a First-Class and Finished Piece of Work. Numerous testimonials to the same can be given at the office.

G. V. NARD,
CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS. 625 AND 627 FRONT ST.
HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.
The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his manufacture, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, by palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of its consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the contrefacteurs. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.
BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

WOLFE'S
SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS.
TO THE CITIZENS OF OREGON:
I BEG LEAVE TO CALL THE ATTENTION OF THE citizens of Oregon to my celebrated AROMATIC SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS, a medicinal, diet drink of exceedingly salutary qualities manufactured by myself, exclusively, at my factory at Schiedam, in Holland.
In General, Gout and Rheumatism, in Obstructions of the Bladder and Kidneys, its effects are prompt, decided, and invariably reliable.
It is now some twenty years since the Proprietor first introduced it to the American public, and during that time he has received over 5,000 letters from physicians endorsing it as the purest liquor they have ever used in their practice.
It is made from barley of the finest quality, selected with great care from the products of the most celebrated grain growing districts, is flavored with the essence of the aromatic juniper berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process, which expels from the spirit every acrid particle.
As a means of preventing and correcting disagreeable biliousness and diseases of the kidneys, for which travelers, new settlers, and all emigrants are peculiarly liable—the
SCHIEDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS
Will be found absolutely infallible; while, in cases of dyspepsia, obstructions of the kidneys diseases of the bladder, stricture, dyspepsia and general debility, it is recommended most emphatically by the most distinguished members of the medical profession.
It is put up in quart and pint bottles, in cases with the name of the undersigned on the bottle and cork, and a fac simile of his signature on the label. For sale by all respectable druggists and country merchants.
Are you WEAK, DEBILITATED, NERVOUS? Is your sleep disturbed? Do you have palpitation of the heart or an inclination to melancholy? Diseases of such nature requires a prompt DIURETIC, which will be found in
Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps.
Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps
Is sold by all Grocers and Apothecaries.
Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps
Is recommended by all the Medical Faculty.
Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps
Is imitated and counterfeited, and purchasers will have to use caution in purchasing.
WOLFE'S AROMATIC SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS,
Imported by UDOLPHO WOLFE, of New York, expressly for medicinal and private use.
WHAT DO YOU DRINK?

The New Telegraph Question—The Proposition to Place the Lines Under the Control of the Government.

[From the New York Times.

It is quite certain that another effort will be made this winter to procure the incorporation by Congress of a so-called Government Telegraph Company, having power to construct and operate lines on all the post roads and routes of the country, assisted by a contract with the Government for transmitting messages.

This scheme substantially aims, it is evident, to introduce here the governmental system of telegraphy which now prevails through a considerable part of Europe, yet under certain modifications. In Europe the State owns and works all the wires, on the ground that the telegraph is merely a form of transmitting correspondence, and hence to be controlled precisely like the post. This is also the system adopted last July in Great Britain, where, after a long discussion Parliament authorized the Government to buy every line of telegraph in the United Kingdom. The operation of the wires will hereafter be in the hands of the British Post Office Department, just as if the message were written letters.

Mr. Washburne, at the last session of Congress, sought in like manner to unite the telegraphic and postal systems of America, introducing a bill for the Government ownership and control of certain telegraphic routes. At the same time Mr. Ramsey brought in a bill to incorporate a "Postal Telegraph Company," to undertake the same thing which the other scheme proposed to intrust to the Government. The difference between the two plans is obvious. The former is strictly the European system; the latter authorizes the Postmaster-general to receive bids from any telegraph company for the transmission by telegraph of messages received and delivered through post office to all cities and villages of 5,000 inhabitants and over, and to towns on the line of the telegraph where stations may be established.

Thus the latter proposition is to give the telegraph business of the company, like the contracts for carrying mails, to the lowest trustworthy bidder; but it is provided that their rate of charges must not exceed twenty-five cents, including five cents postage, for each message of twenty words, including date, address and signature, for every five hundred miles or less distance—five cents for each added five words. It is also proposed to have messages received at all post-offices and street boxes and delivered free.

Were these rates practicable, they would of course demonstrate the feasibility of the proposed scheme, because they would practically reduce the price of telegrams for ordinary distances about 25 percent., while increasing the Government revenue. How, then is it claimed that this change can be actually effected? First, by giving to the Postal Telegraph Company the free use of all the offices, routes, means of transportation, and, in a word, all the business facilities of the postal system; and this, it is asserted, would enormously reduce telegraph expenses. Next, by doing the great increase of business which European statistics show to have resulted from lowering prices.

However, we do not propose at this time to discuss the benefits or the obvious drawbacks of this scheme. When the subject is more fully before the country, the advantages and disadvantages of a Government Telegraph on the one hand, or of a "Postal Telegraph" Company on the other, can be more profitably considered. It is sufficient now to outline the project.

A SLAVE DEALER'S EXECUTION.—A writer in the Atlantic, referring to the execution of Gordon, the slave-trader, says:

"Whatever Gordon's life may have been worth to him or to his friends, I think this country put it to a very good use when she hanged him. A storm of protest was made against his death. Twenty-five thousand people petitioned Abraham Lincoln to spare that man's life, and Abraham Lincoln refused. Gordon was hanged. All through the little ports and big ports of the United States it was known that a slave-trader had been hanged, and when it was known, the American slave trade ended. All up and down little African rivers that you never heard the name of, it was known that an American slave trader had been hanged; and cowardly pirates doubled, and brave seamen cheered when they heard it. Mothers of children thanked such gods as they knew how to thank; and slaves strut up in barracoons, waiting for their voyage, got signal that something had happened which was to give them liberty. That something was that Gordon was hanged. So far that little candle threw its light."

A RELIC OF THE REVOLUTION.—Among the many relics of revolutionary times which have been brought to light by the demolition of the old "Washington House," in Stanford, is the following letter from the traitor, Benedict Arnold, to General Washington:

NEW YORK, March 17, 1776.

"SIR: I take this opportunity to inform your Excellency that I consider myself no longer acting under the commission of Congress, their last [illegible] being my papers at West Point, you, sir, will make such use of as you think proper."

"At the same time I beg leave to assure your Excellency that my attachment to the true interests of my country is invariable, and that I am actuated by the same principle that has ever been the governing rule in my conduct in this unhappy contest.

"I have the honor to be your Excellency's most obedient and most humble servant,

B. ARNOLD,

"His Excellency, General Washington."

Mr. Zachariah Wilson, Portland, Oregon, writes:

"It requires an article of real merit and intrinsic value to sustain itself during the stormy ordeal of public experiments. Murray's Improved Magic Oil has stood the test of time and has not been found wanting. The astonishing efficacy that I experienced in its curing me of Chronic Rheumatism and Lumbago, of long standing entitles Dr. Murray's Premium Lung and Liver Balsam and Improved Magic Oil to a high rank in the list of remedies for Rheumatism, Lumbago, Sarcache, Distressing Pains etc."

John English of Howell Prairie, Marion county, Oregon writes:

"I was taken with a severe attack of Rheumatism in my knee joints and extremities are painful with a severe cough for two months or more. I had to use crutches, meanwhile trying all remedies in common use. Your Magic Oil and Balsam gave me instant relief, and I was able to walk in four days without crutches. I have not felt any rheumatism since. I have given your family medicine to several with excellent success. I have no hesitancy in saying it is the best preparation for family use ever tried for those complaints. I am now on my way to South America after residing in Oregon twenty years. I must now have two dozen Balsam and two dozen of your Magic Oil, dollar bottles, as I am sure there are the best customers in Oregon, and I would not be without them in my house, and when this package of medicine is exhausted I will send to your office in Portland for a fresh supply. CHANCE OF NAME!

MERCADO & CO., SUCCESSORS TO Mercado & Scully, have been obliged for their own protection and the safety of the public, to change the name of their celebrated Bitters to

Native California Wine
BITTERS

We exhibit the following affidavit in an injunction suit formerly pending between Mercado & Scully, plaintiffs, and P. A. Sansevain, defendant:

P. Sansevain, being duly sworn, says, "That the article known as Sansevain's California Wine Bitters was manufactured by Mercado & Scully, about the month of March, 1864, without the said name or Brothers having any concern in the manufacture thereof. The deponent has always known and considered said Mercado & Scully as the sole Proprietors of the Sansevain California Wine Bitters."

Notwithstanding the above affidavit the said P. Sansevain is putting up a compound under the name of Sansevain's California Wine Bitters, representing it to be the same as our celebrated Bitters, which we have been manufacturing and selling in immense quantities since 1860, and also affixing a nearly similar label to that used on our genuine Wine Bitters. BEWARE! RECEIVED! Send for

NATIVE CALIFORNIA WINE BITTERS,

And you will obtain the same popular beverage so favorably known since 1860. Beware of Counterfeits! Purchasers of our Wine Bitters are requested to observe the familiar old yellow label, and see that the words, "MERCADO & SCULLY, SAN FRANCISCO," are engraved on the glass internal stamp pasted over the neck of each bottle. This is the only effectual security against the counterfeit institutions.

OF THE
Weekly Oregonian.
FOR 1869.

Nineteenth Volume!

Only $3.00 a Year.

By common consent, the OREGONIAN ranks first among the papers published in the Northwest. It is the oldest paper in the State, and its circulation and influence are greater than that of any other two papers combined. As a journal of enterprise in gathering the latest intelligence, and in giving in each issue a larger amount and greater variety of reading matter it has no competitor. It is thoroughly identified with this city and State and neighboring Territories, where the number of its readers and its influence are constantly increasing.

An unflinching advocate of sound Union principles, it at the same time pays special attention not only to MATTERS OF GENERAL INTEREST, but to everything of moment to the great

Agricultural, Manufacturing,
AND MINING INTERESTS,

And to the development of the resources and settlement of the Northwest.

Its columns contain a carefully prepared digest of

NEWS FROM ALL PARTS OF
Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana,

TELEGRAMS FROM

are published as full as in the California journals, and put before our readers from ONE TO THREE DAYS BEFORE ANY OTHER PAPER IN THE STATE.

Among its corps of writers are regular correspondents at New York and Washington City, men who, having lived in this State, are able to write on Eastern affairs, both politically and commercially from an Oregon standpoint.

Its Literary and General Selections are from the best sources.

EXTENDED AND RELIABLE

are furnished every week, giving the Financial, Dry Goods, Hardware, and General Market Reports of Portland, and the latest reports by Telegraph of the San Francisco and New York markets. These reports are acknowledged to be the most accurate published in the State.

In every department it will be, as it has been, the foremost in the State in the field of journalism. Being firmly established, it will go forward with confidence, making new plans for improvement and usefulness, and hopes to gain increased circulation and support.

TERMS:

One Year	$3 00.
Six Months	2 00.
Three Months	1 00.

The WEEKLY OREGONIAN has been a favorite paper for mailing to friends in the East. It will be mailed from the office at subscription rates.
